

Leave the Wisconsin law in place! Under the federal law, companies could contact us as many times per day as they desire and for up to 18 months! This level of telemarketing borders on harassment! There is a reason that we choose to leave one company to go to another, and to allow companies to continue to contact/annoy you with pleas to return to them for a full 18 months afterwards is ridiculous.